(Qur'an, Maryam, 19:54-5)

It has also corrected the falsehood concerning the alleged unconditional grant of the Holy Land to the Israelites.
“... and We declared in (both) the Torah and the Psalms (of David) that (only) Our righteous servants shall inherit the land.”
(Qur'an, Prophets, 21:105)

This statement of the Qur'an is supported by some of the Psalms:

“But the meek shall inherit the earth or land (i.e., the Holy Land); and shall delight themselves in the abundance thereof.”

“The righteous shall inherit the earth or land (i.e., the Holy Land), and dwell therein forever (i.e. provided they are righteous).”

“Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth or land (i.e., the Holy Land).” (Matthew, 5:5)

The Qur'an has explained that whenever the Israelites violated the divine conditions of inheritance of the Holy Land, they would be expelled from it:

After that last expulsion took place in the wake of the rejection of the true Messiah and the attempt to crucify him:

“... if you return (i.e., to the Holy Land with your wickedness and oppression), We would return (with Our punishment) to you.”
(Qur'an, the Israelites, 17: 8)

The Israelites have today returned to the Holy Land with more wickedness and oppression than ever before.
